

LUCK IS THE BEST OF GIFTS

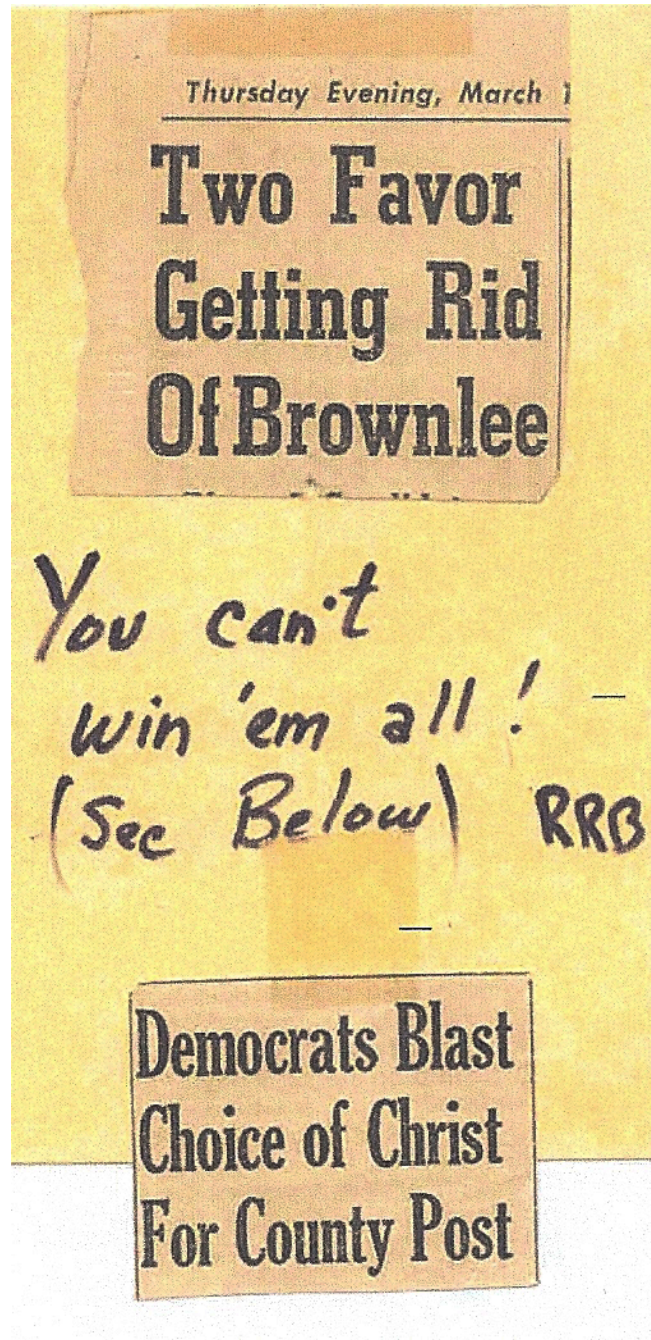

This story goes as follows:

A cousin of mine, Jerry Brownlee, was at one time the city manager of Ft. Worth.

A colleague at Los Alamos, Rea Blossom, Group Leader of J-6 was in Ft. Worth, and brought back the snipped headline about Jerry, and put it up on the Bulletin Board. (Frequent posting all kinds of things was a common event.) Here it is:

The same paper had another article that I could use to great advantage. I did!

It is a great honor when lady luck is with you.
